A Leadership Strategy: Leaning into Conflict by Magnifying MicroAgressions

Tuesday, April 28, 2020
4:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.

PIGOTT AUDITORIUM

KEYNOTE SPEAKER
Beverly Malone, PhD, RN, FAAN

Dr. Beverly Malone is a distinguished health care leader, accomplished innovator and nursing champion. Currently serving as CEO of the National League for Nursing (NLN), Dr. Malone is one of America’s most visible thought leaders on national and global issues facing the nursing profession.

Under Dr. Malone’s leadership, the NLN advanced the science of nursing education by promoting greater collaboration among stakeholders, increasing diversity in nursing and nursing education, and advancing excellence in care for patients. Dr. Malone’s distinguished career has mixed policy, education, administration, and clinical practice, including as federal deputy assistant secretary for health under President Bill Clinton.

As a reviewer, she contributed to the groundbreaking IOM report, “The Future of Nursing: Leading Change, Advancing Health,” and served on the Minority Health Federal Advisory Committee. She has also received more than 20 honorary doctorates.

She has been ranked several times as one of the 100 Most Influential People in Healthcare by Modern Healthcare, which also has honored her as one of the Top 25 Women in Healthcare.

In 2019, Dr. Malone was honored with the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Alpha Omega Chapter of Sigma Theta Tau and the College of Nursing of Adelphi University, Long Island. In 2018, she received the American Psychological Association citation for outstanding US and global community leadership. She also received the 2018 Nursing Outlook Excellence in Research Award.

Event registration begins at 4:00 p.m. A reception and poster presentation featuring scholarly work by SU nursing faculty and students will be held in the Paccar Atrium from 4:00 p.m. to 4:45 p.m. followed by the keynote in Pigott Auditorium.
